ALLOWANCE

This allowance is in response to Applicant's request for continued examination which was filed on 11/27/2009. Claims 19 and 37 are amended. Claims 28-36 are cancelled. Claims 1-18 were previously cancelled. Accordingly claims 19-27, 37, and 38 are presented for further examination.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 11/27/2009 has been entered.

Information Disclosure Statement

The examiner has considered the information disclosure statement that was filed on 11/27/2009.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 19-27, 37, and 38 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicant's amendment to independent claims 19 and 37 distinguish the claimed invention over the prior art because the claims now delineate a unique method for processing information regarding a purchase of a first product or service from a first web site, provision of an uniform resource locator offering a second product or service from a second website, a user selecting the locator, and in response to the selection, and determining whether or not the user had previously acquired the second product or service. The key features of the invention are that the user is redirected from the second web site to the first web site if the determination results in finding that the user had previously purchased the first product or service and where the second product or service are the same as the first product or service.

It is important to note that it is the combination of these features and in particular that the second product or service offered by a second website must be the same as the first product or service offered by a first product or service that lead to the conclusion that the invention is novel. Furthermore, the prior art gives no indication that it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have provided products or services in the specific fashion presented in the independent claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Crouthamel et al, U.S. Patent No. 7249056.
